

Some screening plants selected for height > 15', upright growth habit.

| Large evergreen shrubs, often trained as trees: | Common name | Comments |
|---|-------------------------|---|
| Ceanothus Ray Hartman | Wild lilac | Native; fast, upright |
| Ilex altaclarensis 'Wilsoni' | Wilson's holly | Likes light shade |
| Nerium oleander 'Sister Agnes' | Oleander (white) | Fastest variety of oleander |
| Photinia x Fraseri | Red-tip photinia | Bright red new growth |
| Rhamnus alternus 'John Edwards' | Italian buckthorn | Very drought tolerant |
| Xylosma congestum | Xylosma | Slower growth |
| Evergreen trees: | | |
| Calocedrus decurrens | Incense cedar | Native, fairly slow |
| Cupressus sempervirens 'Glauca' | Italian cypress | Plant close together |
| Laurus nobilis | Grecian bay laurel | Eventually very large |
| Laurus 'Saratoga' | Saratoga bay | Male; rounder leaves, more spreading |
| Podocarpus gracilior | Fern pine | Prune to any shape or size |
| Podocarpus henkeli | Long-leafed yellowwood | Stiffer habit |
| Prunus caroliniana | Carolinaa cherry laurel | Fruit may be messy |
| Prunus ilicifolia; P.i. lyoni | Hollyleaf cherry | Fruit may be messy |
| Sequoia sempervirens | Coast redwood | Not drought tolerant. Huge. |
| Bamboo for screening -- | | |
| Non-invasive species (clumpers) | | Roots spread slowly to a few feet across |
| Bambusa textilis | Weaver's bamboo | |
| Bambusa oldhami | Giant timber bamboo | |
| Bambusa tuldoidea | Punting pole bamboo | |
| Running bamboos | | Must be confined, e.g. livestock troughs |
| Phyllostachys species | | Many forms; graceful, open look |
| Semiarundinaria fastuosa | Temple bamboo | Very leafy type |
| Vine on structure | | |
| Rosa banksia | Lady banks' rose | Will arch up several feet above structure |

<http://redwoodbarn.com>