

The importance of diversity

... in your tree replacement plan.

- Most shade trees take about ten years to provide significant shade.
- Focus on diversity, a mix of growth rates and species, and avoid known pests and diseases that weaken the trees or shorten their lifespans.
- A mix of species is best to avoid the impact of host-specific pests and diseases.